(e) Preferably the maintenance and renewal of the said system as in (d) above should be carried out by the M.E.S. as agents of the C.& M. Commission.

(f) The decision as to the necessity for carrying out renewal and the definition of a renewal as opposed to repairs will follow the general lines of the Secunderabad agreement.

(g) The C.& M. Commission will cease to use any portion of the said system if and when it is required by the military authorities for their own use.

(h) If and when at any future time the said system or any part of it is taken back by the military authorities in accordance with (c) or (g) above, no payment will be made to the C.& M. Commission.

(i) The C.& M. Commission may if they so desire carry out at their own cost and expense any additions to the said system which additions will remain the property of the Commission.

(j) The C.& M. Commission may, if they so desire and with the prior concurrence of the C.R.E., carry out at their own cost and expense any alterations to the said system such as replacing an existing pipe by one of larger size subject to the condition that if and when the military authorities resume the use of the pipes concerned in accordance with (c) or (g) above the C.& M. Commission will have no claim for any payment from the military in respect of the expenditure incurred on or the enhanced value of such alterations. The pipe material replaced will become the property of the Commission.

4. Kindly confirm at an early date that the C.& M. Commission are prepared to concur in the conditions stated in para 3 above in which case they will be incorporated in the draft agreement submitted with your No.4234/56(E.4), dated 30-1-1933, now under scrutiny.
